Fear imprisons, Faith liberates. Fear paralyzes, Faith empowers. Fear disheartens, Faith encourages. Fear sickens, Faith heals. Fear makes useless, Faith makes serviceable. Most of all, Fear puts hopelessness at the heart of life, while Faith rejoices in its God. —Henry Emerson Fosdick

GOD' Rosebud

A new minister was walking with an older, more seasoned minister in the garden one day. Feeling a bit insecure about what God had for him to do, he was asking the older preacher for some advice. The older preacher walked up to a rosebush and handed the young preacher a rosebud and told him to open it without tearing off any petals.

The young preacher looked in disbelief at the older preacher and was trying to figure out what a rosebud could possibly have to do with his wanting to know the will of God for his life and ministry. But because of his great respect for the older preacher, he proceeded to try to unfold the rose, while keeping every petal intact...

It wasn't long before he realized how impossible this was to do. Noticing the younger preacher's inability to unfold the rosebud without tearing it, the older preacher began to recite the following poem...

It is only a tiny rosebud - A flower of God's design;
 But I cannot unfold the petals - With these clumsy hands of mine.

The secret of unfolding flowers - Is not known to such as I.
 GOD opens this flower so easily - But in my hands they die.

If I cannot unfold a rosebud - This flower of God's design,
 Then how can I have the wisdom - To unfold this life of mine?

So I'll trust in God for leading - Each moment of my day.
 I will look to God for guidance - In each step of the way.

The path that lies before me - Only my Lord knows.
 I'll trust God to unfold the moments - Just as He unfolds the rose.

Welcome to the services of the Church! If you are visiting with us, we appreciate your presence and invite you to stay a few moments after the service so we may have an opportunity to meet you! Please feel free to pick up one of our Visitors Packets in the Foyer.

Excuses Won't Save Us

Jesus will come again (John 14:3). On the same day, He will judge all men. That day is called both “the last day” (John 12:48) and “the day of judgment” (2 Peter 3:7). What excuses might be given that day?

“But, Lord, I thought . . .” This sounds like Naaman when he was told to dip in the Jordan to be rid of leprosy (2 Kings 5:11). He thought he knew how things ought to happen, but God thought differently. On judgment day it might be, “But I thought that all a person had to do to be saved was believe in Jesus as God’s Son.” The Bible says, “Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone . . . by works a man is justified, and not by faith only” (James 2:17–24). Jesus will judge us by the Bible (John 12:48).

“But, Lord, I was always told . . .” In the religious realm, all kinds of faulty messages are given. Only God’s word is truth (John 17:17). Some might say, “I was told that one church is as good as another.” God’s Word teaches that there is only one body or church (Ephesians 4:4), that Jesus promised to build one church (Matthew 16:18), and that He purchased and saves only one church with His blood (Acts 20:28; Ephesians 5:23, 25).

“But, Lord, my pastor always said . . .” It is amazing how many people hang their soul’s destiny on what a preacher has to say. The only Pastor whom we should accept as final authority is “our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep” (Hebrews 13:20). He alone has all authority (Matthew 28:18–20). At the judgment, some may plead, “But my pastor said that it doesn’t matter how you worship, just as long as you worship the Lord.” The Master said, “God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth” (John 4:24).

Think about it.
