Living for an Audience of One

"The fear of man brings a snare, But whoever trusts in the LORD shall be safe. Many seek the ruler's favor, But justice for man comes from the LORD. " (Proverbs 29:25-26)

During my freshman year at Texas A&M University, I learned a valuable lesson. It seems that our class had stolen our Commanding Officer's footlocker. After several weeks of hazing, we finally decided to give it back to him. A specific evening and place were designated for returning our prize to our senior commander. On that evening we all met in the country with the footlocker full of ice and beer. To celebrate our truce our C.O. proposed a toast. He demanded that all of us would have a beer in our hands to be a part of this toast. I timidly held that beer can in my hand, but never took a sip. When it was convenient I poured the beer on the ground. Hypocritically, I had given in to the pressure of peers.

Joshua and Caleb refused to ride the tide of popular opinion. They would not listen to the ten other spies or to the complaints of Israel. Against the majority view they stated: "Let us go up at once and take possession, for we are well able to overcome it." (Numbers 13:30) These two faithful spies were the only ones allowed to enter Canaan.

The Apostle's of Christ were also men of great character and integrity. The enemies of Jesus "commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus". (Acts 4:18) "But Peter and John answered and said to them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you more than to God, you judge. "For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard." (Acts 4:19-20) These brave men were determined to please God.

Jesus, our Savior, was the perfect example of the kind of life we are to live. When the critics observed his life they rightly state: "Teacher, we know that You are true, and care about no one; for You do not regard the person of men, but teach the way of God in truth."(Mark 12:14) Jesus was not intimidated by the critics nor swayed by public opinion.

The child of God is to live for an audience of one. God alone is our judge. All things are to be measured by His standards! He alone is to direct my life and I am to seek his approval.

Too Much To Lose, Nothing To Gain

When considering the issue of fellowship, the question, "Why would it be wrong to extend our fellowship to denominations?" is often heard. Simply put, we cannot extend our fellowship to denominations because there is too much to lose and nothing to gain.

First, when we extend our fellowship to denominations we lose our identity. The church of Christ is often described as the body of Christ (Ephesians 1:23). Because there is only one body, there is only one church (Ephesians 4:4). Because I must be a member of Christ's church in order to be saved (Ephesians 5:23), it is important that I am able to recognize and maintain the identity of Christ's church. But when we extend our fellowship to denominations, we ignore the uniqueness of the gospel of Christ and cause the identity of Christ's church to be lost

Second, when we extend our fellowship to denominations we lose our integrity. God's people have always been faced with the danger of compromise. Consider the examples of Moses (Exodus 8:25, 28, 10:11, 24) and Nehemiah (Nehemiah 6:1-3). It is not possible for us to fellowship denominations without compromising the truth.

Third, when we extend our fellowship to denominations we lose our influence. Paul wrote, "Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord" (II Corinthians 6:17). It is not possible for us to separate ourselves from the denominations and extend our fellowship to them at the same time. It is unrealistic to believe we will ever influence a person to come out of a denomination while we extend our fellowship to denominations and recognize them as partners.

Fourth, when we extend our fellowship to denominations we lose our inheritance. As faithful Christians, we have an inheritance waiting for us in heaven (I Peter 1:3-5). Our inheritance in heaven is far greater than any inheritance we can ever receive while on earth. However, when we neglect to believe, teach, and practice the doctrine of Christ, we lose our inheritance (II John 9-11).

(1) This morning a SPECIAL COLLECTION will be taken for the work in Veracruz. This is a work where brother Villalobos serves and we support. Veracruz was hit by a devastating hurricane on September 17th. 12 families in the church lost most if not all of their possessions. If you can help please put what you can in a separate envelope and place it in the offering tray as it comes around. Make checks payable to Northside. Cash will work as well.

(2) In an effort to be more effective in our evangelism efforts there will be an evangelism prayer meeting every Friday at the building from 6:30-7:00. Please come and join us for this time of song and prayer directed towards God on behalf of the lost in our community.

(3) There will be a "YOUTH DEVO" at Wanda Glovers home Tuesday night. The meeting will be from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

(4) The Home Bible study will take place at the Dale's home this Monday at 6:30 p.m. The study is intended as an outreach to the lost, so bring a friend. We are studying through the parables.

(5) Area wide singing for Northside has now been moved to February 2011.

(6) The minutes from our last business meeting (10/17/10) have been posted on the bulletin board under the home section.
